Organisation Overview

Organisation Overview

1.1 Name

Cebolethu Funerals

1.2 Brief History

Cebolethu Funerals is a family-owned funeral parlour established in 2006 by Mr. France Cebolethu in Mamelodi East, Pretoria. What started as a small township operation with a single second-hand hearse has grown into one of the most trusted funeral service providers in the Tshwane region. The name "Cebolethu" means "our comfort" in isiZulu, reflecting the organisation's commitment to providing compassionate support during difficult times.

Over the past 19 years, Cebolethu Funerals has expanded to include:

- A dedicated funeral parlour with two chapels
- Four funeral vehicles

- A team of 12 full-time staff members
- A second branch opening in Soshanguve in 2025

The business is now managed by Thabo's daughter, Ms. Lerato Cebolethu, who brings modern business practices while maintaining the family values of dignity, respect, and community care.

1.3 Mission Statement

"To provide dignified, affordable, and compassionate funeral services that honour the lives of the departed while bringing comfort and support to grieving families in their time of need."
